- Lamport, Leslie. 1986. \LaTeX : A Document Preparation System. Addison-Wesley.

Course Policy

I will detail the policy for this course below. Basically, don't cheat and try to learn stuff.

Grading Policy

- 20% of your grade will be determined by a midterm during normal class hours.
- 20% of your grade will be determined by your ability to play air drums against a track of “Slow Ride” by Foghat. Do note this test will use the full 8:14 LP version and not the 3:56 radio version.
- 10% of your grade will be determined by your attendance and participation in class. Generally, ask questions and answer them.
- 20% of your grade will be determined by a term paper on when exactly “The Love Boat” jumped the proverbial shark. You will address whether this shark-jumping can be attributed to Ted McGinley, the introduction of Jill Whelan as “Vicki”, or some other cause.
- 30% of your grade will be determined by a final exam.

Academic Dishonesty Policy

Don't cheat. Don't be that guy. Yes, you. You know exactly what I'm talking about too.

Disabilities Policy

Federal law mandates the provision of services at the university-level to qualified students with disabilities. Make sure to include all that relevant information here.
